The Little River Concert Series presents:

BIG JUMP'S VALENTINES DAY SOCK HOP

Sunday, February 12, 2012, at 7:30 PM
Hampton Community Center (the former Little River Grange)
178 Main St., Hampton 06247

Do you love to dance? Love the music of Aretha Franklin and Wilson Pickett? Remember the magic names of Stax, Volt and Motown? Do you like to get together and have a good time with friends, or do you have a special someone you would like to take out to listen to a great band and dance the night away?

Well, this is your opportunity! "Big Jump" is a local R&B, 'neo-soul' act which has been tearing up the crowds at Fred's Brick Oven and the Roots Café. Led by the charismatic vocalist Perry Mandanis, the group also features Mark Davis on the lead guitar, Lou Chatey on the Fender bass, Jan Jungden on the Hammond B-3, and Frank Busse slamming the skins. From the classic hits of Aretha Franklin and Wilson Pickett to the modern soul sounds of Duffy and Adele, the band will have you on your feet and dancing your blues away!

In a departure from normal scheduling this concert will be on a Sunday evening, February 12. The event takes place at Hampton's Community Center, the well-loved (and beautifully refurbished) old Little River Grange Hall. Bring your 'picnics' (although tables will be provided, the hall will not be set up cabaret style as the focus of the evening is on dancing).
