

Hampton Fall Festival

Saturday Oct. 1, 2016

Hampton is having its first ever Fall Festival! It promises to be a fun-filled, fall-filled day starting with a Fun Run, and continuing with tag and book sales, live music, hayrides, children's activities, contests, exhibits and of course food! All activities take place in and around Town Hall, the adjacent Green and the Community Center.

If interested in being a vendor, exhibitor, or a tag sale participant, download form on town website, or contact Anne at email or phone below.

Questions? Email: hamptonfallfest@gmail.com or call: Anne: 860 455-9979

Schedule of events:

Family Fun Run : 9am (registration 8-9am) approx. 5k, non-sanctioned

Library Book and Bake Sale : 8am-2pm

Tag Sale : 8am-3pm

Live folk and bluegrass music: 10:30am-1:30pm

Tractor display: 9am-3pm

Everything there is to know about chickens! – 10am-2pm

Ask the Vet! – answering all your animal questions: - 9-11am

Plant swap: 10am-2pm

Hayrides on demand

Exhibits and vendors all day

Food: hamburgers & hot dogs on the grill provided by our own Volunteer Fire Dept.!

We-Lik-it ice cream

Contests for all!

Veg./Fruit/Homemade preserves or harvest goods contest – produce and goods to be brought between 8 and 9am, judging at 10am, ribbons awarded at 10:30am (all entries must be removed by end of day.)

Largest pumpkin contest! – Same times as above

Just for kids!

Pumpkin painting – all day, bring your own pumpkin or we will supply

Scarecrow building contest - all day: armatures and hay will be provided, bring old clothes for dressing your scarecrow. We will also have some old clothes on hand. Scarecrows will remain in front of Town Hall through the month of Oct!

(Painted pumpkins and scarecrows will be judged for most creative, scariest, and funniest!)